Parish of The Three Patrons

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sunday 6th November 2016

We Pray For Our Deceased Loved Ones

God our Father, Your power brings us to birth,
Your providence guides our lives, and by Your command we return to dust.

Lord, those who die still live in Your presence, their lives change but do not end. I pray in hope for my family, relatives and friends, and for all the dead known to You alone.

In company with Christ, who died and now lives, may they rejoice in Your kingdom, where all our tears are wiped away.

Unite us together again in one family to sing Your praise forever and ever, Amen.

Remembering Our Dead As November is a special month of prayer for the dead, there are books in our churches in which you can enrol the names of your deceased family and friends. At Masses each day during November, there will be a special prayer for those enrolled.

Novena to Close the Year of Mercy In solidarity with Pope Francis and the Church throughout the world, our parish is launching the Novena to close the Year of Mercy. This very special time of prayer will be held in St Patrick's Church, Pennyburn on Friday 11th November at 7.30pm with 'Mercy' Evening Prayer and finishing at 11.30pm with Eucharist. From Friday 11th November until Sunday 20th November we encourage people to pray the following Prayer which will be recited publically at our masses throughout the Novena. People may say this prayer as individuals or as a family in their own home.

*Jesus, Mary and Joseph, Holy Family of Nazareth, bless our family.
Keep anger and violence far from our door. May our home be a place of love, mercy and forgiveness. Share our moments of happiness with us.
Whenever things are difficult, help us to overcome together the problems that come our way. Be with families in Ireland and around the world who are homeless or suffering. Jesus, Mary and Joseph come into our home and our hearts and stay with us always. Amen.*

Novena to our Mother of Perpetual Help continues in St Joseph's Church, each Wednesday at 7pm and will conclude on Wednesday 21st December.
